What Guitar Should I Buy?

SEAGULL PEPPINO D'AGOSTINO SIGNATURE MODEL ($1,395 list/$1,160 street). Although this guitar has a 14-fret neck and a dreadnought-size body, it does have an extra-wide (almost two inches!) neck, a solid spruce top, and a cut-away. If Todd wants to plug in at his restaurant gigs, the acoustic-electric version includes top-notch L.R. Baggs dual pickups ($1,753 list/$1,460 street).
